Toledo Province

2016/2017 ANNUAL REPORT

TRUSTING IN GOD WHO MAKES

ALL

DEAR FRIENDS,

We trust in God who makes all things new! And we are forever grateful for your trust in the Toledo Province of the Sisters of Notre Dame. This past year your prayers, service, and financial support have helped extend our reach to the poor and marginalized here in Toledo and across the globe. You enabled us to meet the intellectual and spiritual needs of children and adults in migrant fields in northwest Ohio and Corpus Christi, Texas. You helped us assist young women broken by human trafficking, adults suffering from AIDS, and infants struggling to overcome fetal alcohol syndrome. You blessed us with your generosity, helping us provide dignified care for our elder sisters.

Our Toledo province is 175 sisters strong, ministering now in 12 states, in Rome, Uganda, Germany, and Papua New Guinea. No matter where we are or what we are doing, our message is the same as it was at our congregation's founding in 1850: God will care and provide.

In a world where every day is often a challenge for many, the Sisters of Notre Dame continue to adapt, learn, and go where we are needed most. We live and work among immigrants who are as eager to receive the sacraments as they are to forge a new life in the United States. We take the Word of God into the Toledo Correctional Center and to those in their final earthly days at Hospice.

We have witnessed a renewed thirst for spirituality among the young, so we look for creative ways to connect with them through social media or by our presence with them on college campuses or in the heart of the central city. Our goal is that the young will enrich the world through their leadership and Christian service. Our hope is that some young women will respond to the call to serve Christ as a member of our congregation.

Thank you for your generous support of the Sisters of Notre Dame and your contributions to our beautiful new SND Center in Whitehouse. We welcome you to visit, spend time in prayer, and connect with our sisters who continue to remember you in prayer.

As we look forward, our driving force for the next six years will be our new Congregational Vision:

Trusting in God who makes all things new, we commit ourselves to

LIVE incarnational spirituality,

GROW in life-giving relationships,

BE one in diversity.

Thank you for trusting in the Toledo Province of the Sisters of Notre Dame!

With God's blessing,

KEITH TREMMEL, FACILITIES MANAGER
FOR THE SISTERS OF NOTRE DAME

KEITH TREMMEL SAYS HE IS A “CRADLE TO CAREER” CATHOLIC, BUT HE DIDN’T PLAN IT THAT WAY. ALTHOUGH HE WAS BORN AND RAISED IN A CATHOLIC FAMILY, RECEIVING HIS EDUCATION AT ST. CATHERINE’S CATHOLIC SCHOOL AND CENTRAL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL, HIS CAREER WITH THE SISTERS OF NOTRE DAME JUST SEEMED TO KEEP FALLING IN PLACE.

A part-time janitorial job at Notre Dame Academy while he was a student at Central Catholic eventually led to a full-time position as the school’s maintenance director.

“Sr. Mary Carol Gregory (former principal at Notre Dame Academy) always seemed to look out for me,” said Keith. “If I had a need or concern about anything, she was always there, looking out for the right thing to do.”

Keith has been equally quick to do the right thing, either by learning on the job, or completing training in HVAC, waste water treatment, or whatever other skill is necessary to keep the facilities running smoothly.

“When I was in college, Sr. Carol contacted me and said they had a problem with flooding in the boiler room,” said Keith. “I told her if I can get a license to do the work, I’ll take care of it.”

It is that dedication that eventually led to Keith’s position as facilities manager for the Provincial Center on Secor Road.

“In 1990 the sisters were looking for someone to head the maintenance department at the Provincial Center and Lial campus,” said Keith. “Someone suggested I offer some advice on the type of person they would need.”

As the sisters talked to Keith they realized that their ideal candidate was sitting right in front of them. And so, Keith’s career in a Catholic environment continued.

“Working with the sisters is like working for a big family,” said Keith, who also serves in the Knights of Columbus. “They take a real interest in you and your life”

When the new Whitehouse campus was being built, Keith made the trek from the Secor Road campus daily to help monitor the 14-month construction process.

The new campus is heated through a state-of-the-art geothermal system, a far cry from the clunky old boilers in the Secor Road campus buildings. Much of Keith’s work revolves around preventative maintenance to ensure things keep running smoothly and efficiently.

Keith and the other managers meet monthly with Sr. Delores to report on issues, challenges, and any concerns. “It helps keep us all on the same page and working as a team.”

The work can definitely be stressful and rarely does a day go by that Keith’s cell phone doesn’t buzz in the hours after the standard work day ends. It’s a 24/7 job that not everyone is suited for.

“Sometimes when it’s go, go, go, it’s nice to have this beautiful peaceful campus around you,” says Keith. “I can slow down for a minute and take time to enjoy it and spend time with the sisters.”

“I like being the feet and eyes on the ground for the sisters,” Keith says. “They have always looked out for me. I like looking out for them.”

SR. JENNY (LEFT), WITH SR. JEANETTE
A VERBUM DEI SISTER, WHO IS WORKING IN VOCATION MINISTRY AT UCLA

WHILE WATCHING THE CLEVELAND INDIANS COMPETE IN THE 2016 PLAYOFFS WITH STUDENTS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, SR. JENNY ZIMMERMAN SAID TALK TURNED TO PRAYER. NOT PRAYER FOR THE INDIANS TO WIN THE PLAYOFFS, BUT PRAYER IN GENERAL.

It's the kind of casual atmosphere where students, immersed in college life, can turn to a woman religious and ask questions. That's a big part of Sr. Jenny's presence on the USC campus. She came to the university as part of a grant from the Conrad N. Hilton Foundation as part of a pilot program on vocational discernment. The sisters have a presence among students, and act as mentors and guides for them on their spiritual journey.

"It's amazing how much interest the students have about religious life and how they can make good, Catholic decisions," said Sr. Jenny. On a recent retreat with 62 undergraduate students Sr. Jenny said 17 students asked for spiritual direction, 36 asked to be placed on a prayer list, and 16 asked to meet one-on-one to discuss discernment.

"I'm an extrovert, so if I see someone with a curious stare, I'm going to follow it. I want to answer the students' questions and I want them to be comfortable asking them."

"I'm not here specifically to recruit," she explained. "I'm here to listen and help young people. If the students have never met a sister before, I'm available to begin that relationship. And once that relationship is developed, the conversations begin to go deeper."

It's a process she is familiar with in her own spiritual journey. Sr. Jenny's discernment was not the proverbial "Ah ha, God called me" moment. In fact, she did all she could to prove religious life was not on her radar.

Growing up on a farm in rural Ohio, Sr. Jenny said she was—and still is—a sports fanatic. She played five sports in school, and earned a degree in exercise science from the University of Toledo. She was working full time in the medical department at GM Powertrain in Defiance when a friend invited her to go on a pilgrimage to Rome with the Sisters of Notre Dame. The seed was planted, ever so quietly. Her continued interaction with the sisters created a gradual wondering.

"There was a joy and energy that was in the room whenever the sisters were there and I felt that," she said.

"But I kept telling myself God has the wrong person," she said. "This went on for three years."

When she did enter the order Sr. Jenny did it convinced that she would find out it wasn't for her and the process would help her "get it out of her system."

"I learned I had every option of doing everything and anything in my life," she said. "And then I realized, the sisters do all these things, too." Sr. Jenny professed her final vows in 2013.

After working at Notre Dame Academy as a strength and conditioning coach, theology teacher, and campus minister, Sr. Jenny moved to California to work in vocational ministry when the USC campus ministry program occurred.

"My goal in the beginning was just to be around the students," said Sr. Jenny, who works in USC's Caruso Catholic Center. "We've had wonderful conversations about religious life, sports, and life in Ohio. As part of the grant program we are keeping track of the meaningful and intentional conversations with students about spiritual life."

The questions Sr. Jenny hears from students are no doubt questions she once had as a college student. "How do I pray?" "How do I know what God wants for my life?"

The response to the sisters' presence on the campus has been phenomenal.

"With the growing interest among the students we have added two more sisters and a marketing person to the staff," she said. "Currently, we have 1,500 active Catholic students involved in all types of programs at the Caruso Center."

The students meet with Sr. Jenny in group settings where they may discuss things like decision making. "We help them decide what their needs are and what God's passion is. Then we look at how those two can meet."

There are also many one-on-one conversations, some which may lead to a young woman deciding on religious life.

"Not everyone is going to be called to religious life," she said. "We are trying to give them spiritual tools so that we can have happy, holy married people and happy, holy single people. Whatever their choice, we are here for them for their journey."

After just a short time on the university campus Sr. Jenny said she is confident that today's young people are on the right track. "I think our future is good. There is a huge desire among these young people to make a difference."

And Sr. Jenny is there to be part of it.

"The question I always ask students is 'How is your heart?' I want to know, 'What do you need and how can I help you?'"

SUCCESS

RICHARD AND MARY ANN LAVALLEY

MATERIAL THINGS MAY BRING TEMPORARY HAPPINESS IN LIFE, BUT FOR RICHARD LAVALLEY, SR. AND HIS WIFE, MARY ANN, FAMILY, EDUCATION, AND THEIR CATHOLIC FAITH EXCEEDED ALL ELSE IN VALUE. IT WAS NOT ONLY IMPORTANT TO THEM TO SEND THEIR SEVEN CHILDREN TO CATHOLIC SCHOOLS, BUT TO ALSO SUPPORT THOSE WHO HELPED LEAD THEIR CHILDREN IN FAITH.

The LaValley's family involvement with the sisters began at Christ the King parish and school, where all seven of their children completed their elementary schooling.

Richard and Mary Ann were very involved in their children's education, both academically and spiritually and were greatly involved with the parish.

Richard's motivation to give back stemmed from his belief that his faith required it and that success should be shared.

One of the primary motivators for his generosity was his challenging childhood – he was orphaned at age 10 and raised by a loving but far from well off extended family. He decided his best path forward was an education which was only made possible by enlisting in the armed services to qualify for the G.I. bill.

Richard attributed his success to his faith and educational opportunities. Most of his giving was therefore focused on need-based educational opportunities.

Among the LaValley's contributions to the Notre Dame community are two scholarship funds they created at Notre Dame Academy through their family foundation: the St. Gerard Scholarship and The Leadership Challenge Scholarship. The NDA gymnasium is also named after Mary Ann.

The LaValley children continue to share Richard and Mary Ann's deep faith and commitment to fostering and supporting Catholic education and the work of the Sisters of Notre Dame.

The children said they have witnessed the sisters' work, like that with Double Arc, which serves children born with fetal alcohol syndrome. The sisters' work sets a precedence for serving those that need the help and assistance the most.

The LaValley Family said they all understand and appreciate the volume of good works the many women religious have made to Northwest Ohio through the gift of their lives of dedicated service. The Sisters of Notre Dame are extremely grateful to the LaValleys and the many other donors who support their faith-filled work.

VOLUNTEER CHERYL STEVENS AND SR. FRANCIS MARIE (RIGHT)
DELIVER SUPPLIES TO RAHAB'S HEART.

IT'S NOT A SCENARIO YOU NORMALLY ASSOCIATE WITH SISTERS, BUT FOR SR. ANN-MARIE BORGESS AND SR. FRANCES MARIE PENWELL, DRIVING DOWN SOME OF THE WORST STREETS IN THE CITY IN THE EVENING, LOOKING FOR WOMEN IN NEED HAS BECOME A WEEKLY ROUTINE. BOTH SISTERS, WHO ARE FULL TIME ELEMENTARY TEACHERS, TRAVEL WITH A TEAM OF VOLUNTEERS TO DISTRIBUTE HYGIENE AND SNACK KITS TO WOMEN WHO ARE INVOLVED IN PROSTITUTION AND MAY BE VICTIMS OF HUMAN TRAFFICKING. IT'S A CRUCIAL SERVICE IN TOLEDO, WHICH RANKS FOURTH IN THE NATION FOR HUMAN TRAFFICKING.

"We are received very favorably most of the time," said Sr. Ann-Marie. "We offer them items like toothbrushes, chapstick, and snacks and we ask if we can help them."

The sisters often travel with LeeAnn Campbell, who helped found Rahab's Heart, a safe home in North Toledo that provides assistance to women working in the commercial sex trade. Rahab's Heart is named for the biblical story about a prostitute named Rahab, who helped Joshua. "LeeAnn was formerly involved in trafficking and is a tremendous resource to these women and to us," said Sr. Ann-Marie.

Rahab's Heart operates on a drop-in basis, providing women with a place to stay for a few nights, to do laundry, and take a shower. Volunteers host free meals for the women and children on the first Friday of each month.

"These women have been dealt a very difficult hand in life," Sr. Ann-Marie said. "They are dealing with generational poverty, neighborhood violence, a lack of education, and many other situational challenges that are very hard to break free from. This life is not something women seek out because they want it," added Sr. Frances Marie. "There are women as young as six who have been brought into trafficking and they can't get out."

"For many of these women, this is the life they've always known," she added. "They may have been raped or even forced into trafficking by their family."

The sisters have also hosted day-long retreats at the Lial Retreat Center for the women, transporting them to the site and sharing meals and scripture readings that can help them reflect on their faith and God's providence.

"With God's mercy, and our help, these women want to make changes," said Sr. Ann-Marie. "They are often women of tremendous faith."

Sr. Ann-Marie and Sr. Frances Marie also believe educating youth about human trafficking will help stunt its growth. Sr. Frances Marie teaches students in grades five through eight about the realities of human trafficking. "Unfortunately," said Sr. Frances Marie, "some of these children already know someone who may be involved in trafficking."

"We talk about red flags they should be aware of, like someone offering them a job that pays really well, the dangers of someone grooming them online, and safety at the malls and library."

Sr. Frances Marie has also led workshops on human trafficking for parents and teachers in the Diocese. She also assists with the SOAP (Save Our Adolescents from Prostitution) project. Last year she and other volunteers travelled to Detroit for a SOAP workshop in which they labeled bars of soap with the nationwide human trafficking hotline. They spent the day delivering the bars of soap to area hotels. Women who are trafficked are often taken to hotels and the hotline number on the bar of soap they find in the bathroom can be their lifeline. The volunteers share the names of the hotels and managers they went to with the FBI, who follow up with those most likely to have traffickers in their building. Last year, by 10 p.m. on the day the volunteers spent distributing the soap, the FBI was able to save three young ladies from trafficking in some of the hotels they had visited.

"There is often a lot of judgment directed at these women, but it doesn't have anything to do with their reality," said Sr. Ann-Marie. "They are some of the most generous and kind women I have ever met."

"This work has changed me for the better in so many ways," she added. "It has impacted my teaching. I emphasize advocating for the underserved to children."

"We try to help children—and everyone—remember that we are a world family. Our family is not just the people sitting next to us—it's people everywhere."

"Working with these women has made me even more aware that as a Sister of Notre Dame, I am working for the poor and marginalized. My sheer existence should be lifting up people who are in suffering and pain."

"This is part of the mission of the Sisters of Notre Dame," added Sr. Frances Marie. "We do not wait around until someone needs our help. We seek out those in need." Once when I was out in the evening with a volunteer, I felt compelled to stop and reach out to a woman who was alone," said Sr. Frances. "When I asked her what I could do for her, she said, 'What you've done for me is just save my life.' We took her to a family agency that helped her to find a safe place to live."
